Your knowledge of the property prior to your ownership may be relevant. In the case of a material defect, for example, if information that you possess indicates some persistent pattern of a problem not completely remedied, such information should be included in this disclosure in order to achieve full and honest disclosure. Your answers or the answers you fail to provide, either way, may have legal consequences, even after the closing of the sale. This questionnaire should help you meet your disclosure obligation, but it may not cover all aspects of your property. If you know of or suspect some condition which would substantially lower the value of the property, impair the health or safety of future occupants, or otherwise affect a Buyer's decision to buy your property, then use the space at the end of this form to describe that condition.
